

Southeast England: London, Kent, and Sussex June 10-26, 2022

Our 16-day 2022 tour features the culture and history of southeast England, including Kent, Sussex, and London, with a special interest in crime writers who live and/or set their novels there. Participants will meet on the morning of Friday June 10 in Heathrow Airport for transfer to Canterbury for the beginning of our tour. From Canterbury, we travel to Tunbridge Wells to explore that area, including visits to Rochester, of special importance to Charles Dickens' life, then to Brighton, and finally to London for the remaining 6 days of our tour.

The tentative itinerary includes the following: A tour of Canterbury Cathedral and walking tour of Canterbury; visits to Dover Castle and the white cliffs of Dover; visits to Rye and Leeds Castle; a walking tour of Rochester, with visits to Rochester Castle and Rochester Cathedral; a visit to Chatham Dockyard for a special Call the Midwife tour; a panoramic tour of mystery writers' London to include many of its most famous landmarks like Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Tower of London; a walking tour of Covent Garden; a walking tour featuring Legal London—the Inns of Court and possibly the Old Bailey; the Churchill Museum and War Rooms, the Supreme Court building; a Brighton walking tour; visits to Chartwell, Hever Castle, and Tunbridge Wells; tours of Fishbourne, Chichester Cathedral and the Weald and Downland Living Museum; the Royal Pavilion and Palace Pier.

Tour price includes:

- 16 nights' lodging: 4 nights Canterbury, 3 nights Tunbridge Wells, 5 nights London, 4 nights Brighton
- Welcome and farewell receptions
- All breakfasts, 3 lunches, and 5 dinners
- All entrance fees and transfers to sites included in itinerary
